THE KENTUCKY ELECTION.

Ironble Is Looked for in Louisville-Precautionary Measures Taken by Gov. Bradley, Who Is There.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7 .- Gov. Bradey, in his capacity as commander-inchief of the state national guard, was the central figure in the political situation Monday night. The governor believes the situation to be so serious that he will not go to his home at Laneaster, only about a hundred miles from Louisville, to cast his vote Tues-

Gov. Bradley positively refused to say what his plans are beyond an expression contained in a letter which he made public Monday night. The governor was expected to address a meeting at the Auditorium Monday night, but changed his mind, giving the following in explanation for his refusal to attend:

"Hon A E Willson: "My Dear Sir-In view of the intense public excitement not prevailing in this city and the fact that numerous affiliavits of good citizens have been filed with me showing that there is grave danger of riot and bloodshed and that citizens will be prevented by force and fraud THE Ironton Firebrick Company has from exercising their right of suffrage in this city to-morrow, and in view of the further fact workmen-the third advance within six that I have been called upon to act as chief peace officer of the commonwealth, I have conluded that it would be improper for me to deiver an address this evening.

'I will thank you to assur those who may THE L. and N. Railroad will cease to kindly honor me by their presence that I will remain in the city and see that every voter. irrespective of political opinion, is protected in his right to vote and have his vote counted and the public peace protected at all hazards.

"I do not intend to surround the polls with payonets or intimidate voters. I do intend that they shall not be intimidated and will act comptly should necessity arise. Yours, "W. O. BRADLEY.."

The disturbed state of political feeling in this city was aggravated Monday evening by the action of the board of election commissioners, which is controlled by democrats in removing 87 republican election officers and substituting for them names submitted by men who, it is claimed by the regular republican organization, do not represent the party. While the commissioners acted within their technical rights, the removals may be the cause of coined $3,313,569 in silver-more than trouble. The expectation that the one half of what was coined in 80 years governor will call out the militia durstop to consider that the Free-silverites men of both parties. The provocation are eternally crying about the "Crime of may occur through attempts of the '78," and that their precious silver dollars deposed election officers to hold their police in some of the down town wards. If the militia is called out it may result in the closing of the polls by the local election officers on the ground that the presence of soldiers prevented a free expression of popular will. Or son county with circulars asking for if the polls remain open it may result votes. NIGHT TURNED NTODAY

For the benefit of our large and growing after-supper trade, we have lighted our store with electricity.

Our Store is Now Light as

Our desire is and always has been to give our patrons the best of service and we feel sure that our clientele of evening shoppers will appreciate this latest and expensive effort of ours to please. In the latter part of August The Price Fighter visited the Grand Rapids Furniture Exposition and purchased the entire line of samples of Fall Styles of seven of the largest manufacturers of Leather, Reed, Roman and Reception Chairs in America; also the entire line of samples of the three (3) largest Novelty Manufacturers in America.

These Holiday Goods are now arriving daily, and as fast as uncrated are marked at half price.

> We absolutely defy whole known world these goods! We will forfeit $100 for the production of like values of any competitor!

The Price Fighter has never misled you. On the other hand, there is not a precinct in five counties in which the reading and thinking people have not profited by The Price Fighter's advice. I now say to you that in all my mercantile experience my eyes never beheld such bargains as these Christmas goods that I now wish to show you.

My Advice Now Is Come Quick!

At One-Half the Price Asked by City Stores.

I will forfeit $100 if this is not a fact. Our customers have long since learned to place absolute confidence in our every statement; but it is a lamentable fact that there are yet a few-just a very few-people to whom The Price Fighter is yet a stranger in a business way. To these few I now say

Please Give Me a Square Deal.

Please give me the consideration to which I am entitled. I certainly am entitled to some consideration for having brought New York City to your door. All I ask is that you look at my Christmas stock and learn the prices on same. I will consider it a friendly and charitable act if you will just come inside of my front door! I have spent six mouths collecting these novelties from all over the world, and all I ask is that you call and look at them! Surely that is a modest request. Hoping that you will inspect my superb line of Christmas goods, I am your venturesome friend,
